Training – Both Sessions

Shana Marks, Field Information Analyst with National Insurance Crime Bureau, will present a session on NICB's current data analytics program. She will discuss using data analytics for property and medical claims for the insurance industry and law enforcement. She will talk about the services NICB provides and the process of working with them on the investigation of property and medical claims.

Brandon Ruediger, NICB Special Agent, will also be present to introduce himself and take questions.

Registration

Simply email us your name at board@ia-neiasiu.com. Please keep in mind the Iowa training is a catered lunch, inform us at least a week in advance if you have reserved a place, but are unable to attend.

Non-members are asked to pay for lunch in advance or make arrangements to pay at the door

Attendance is restricted to those individuals involved with the investigation of insurance fraud or other related crimes. The IA-NE IASIU reserves the right to refuse to admit any person whose actions or purpose is contrary to the mission of the IA-NE IASIU and its members.
